Needed Tools

Measuring cup, scale, whisk, water cup, sculpting roller, film, sharp knife, Ring Cutter, bristle brushes, scissors, stones or sand, adhesive film, glue gun with accessories

1

Mix the papier maché by product instructions with water.

2

Inflate balloon in a desired size, cover with paper maché.

3

Smooth the surface with water.

4

Roll an approx. 5 mm thick piece of papier maché.

5

Cut out a triangle for the beak.

6

Cut out a circle for the wings and cut in half.

7 Press the wings with some water at the owl body. Dry the papier maché body about 3 - 4 days.

8 Prime the styrofoam medallions with white paint.

9 Fill the dried Owl body with some stones.

10 Close the opening with papier maché close, let papier maché dry.

11 Cut the napkin in the desired shape. Remove the top layer of the napkin and fix it with napkin glue on the medallions. I.e.: lay the napkin with the bottom and put the glue on top of the napkin. The adhesive dries transparent.

12 Paint eyes with the edding pen. Prime the beak with black paint. Allow the paint to dry.

13 Stick owl body and wings with the napkins as described.
Dry the adhesive layer.

14 Fix the beak and eyes with the hot glue gun.
